Altona is a poor neighbor: Maddern

The "poor neighborly attitude" of Altona Council has upset councillor Fred Maddern.

Attacking the Altona Council's refusal to co-operate in restricting the movement of commercial vehicles along New Street, Spotswood, Cr. Maddern said: "Altona has a very high-handed attitude".

Footscray Council has received several complaints from New Street residents over traffic noise.

Footscray's side of New Street is zoned "residential" whereas the Altona side is "general industrial".

"If the boot was on the other foot, they'd be making the noise," Cr. Maddern said.

Continuing his attack on the Altona Council he said: "Our street sweeper will frequently clean both sides of New Street when it is in the area.

"But when the Altona sweeper is in the area and residents have asked the driver to do both sides he has said: 'It's not worth my job'."

Cr. Maddern said that recently Altona Council had "hot-mixed" one side of New Street without even paying us the courtesy of giving us the opportunity of doing our side at the same time.

"Now we have to join up the other side. This sort of thing has been going on for 12 months."

"I'm quite disgusted with Altona and I hope they become the neighbor they should be."

Cr. Maddern's motion calling for a meeting between Footscray and Altona councillors was pressed.

Starfish are taking over in bay

By Ron Coleman

Starfish are eating the life out of Port Phillip Bay and seriously threatening the fishing industry.

These claims were made last week by a man who spends much of his life under water.

He is Fred Glasbrenner, an abalone diver of May Street, Altona North.

"The starfish are taking over our natural reefs and devouring everything in their path... jellyfish, crabs, abalone, mussels, all kinds of shellfish, even spiny sea urchins and seaweed," he said.

Fred has been diving professionally in the bay for 11 years and says he's never seen anything like it.

"The situation has got so bad in the last couple of years that if they keep going all that will be left is bare reef."

The starfish Fred refers to are the 'coscinasteni' as calamaria, species.

They each have 11 tentacles and a stomach which drops out from their body allowing them to choke the life out of shellfish and vegetation.

On an average dive, Fred kills about 100 starfish and fifty per cent of them have a shellfish or abalone in their clutches.

"All I do is wound them in the stomach with an abalone knife and their own kind eat them," he said.

Fred partly blames amateur fishermen for the plague of starfish. When they catch one they tear it in half and throw it back, causing the starfish to multiply.

Fred has appealed on television for the Fisheries and Wildlife Department to do something positive to alleviate the situation.

"And I've contacted them three times... but got no reaction."

"I want them to come out with me and I'll show them just how bad things are. It's frightening."

Fred is concerned because the ecology of the bay is threatened, and so is a lucrative livelihood.

"I've been out on the bay making films, taking samples while other divers have been earning money," he said.

Abalone fishing depends on weather conditions.

"Sometimes we can't work for three weeks."

Fred also seeks co-operation from other abalone divers in killing starfish in the bay and bringing them out of the water.

"If each boat brought out a bagful a day, we could hold them back," he said.

After talking to Fred, I contacted Conrad Beins, officer-in-charge of marine fisheries research at the Fisheries and Wildlife Department.

He agreed there had been a "dramatic increase" of starfish in certain spots.

REMOVAL

Mr. Beins said research carried out by fisheries people in Queensland into the Crown of Thorns starfish plague had proved that "physical removal" was the best method of cutting down the numbers.

He added that his department was awaiting recommendations from the fisheries branch of the Victorian Farmers' Union... a voluntary union for abalone divers and fishermen.

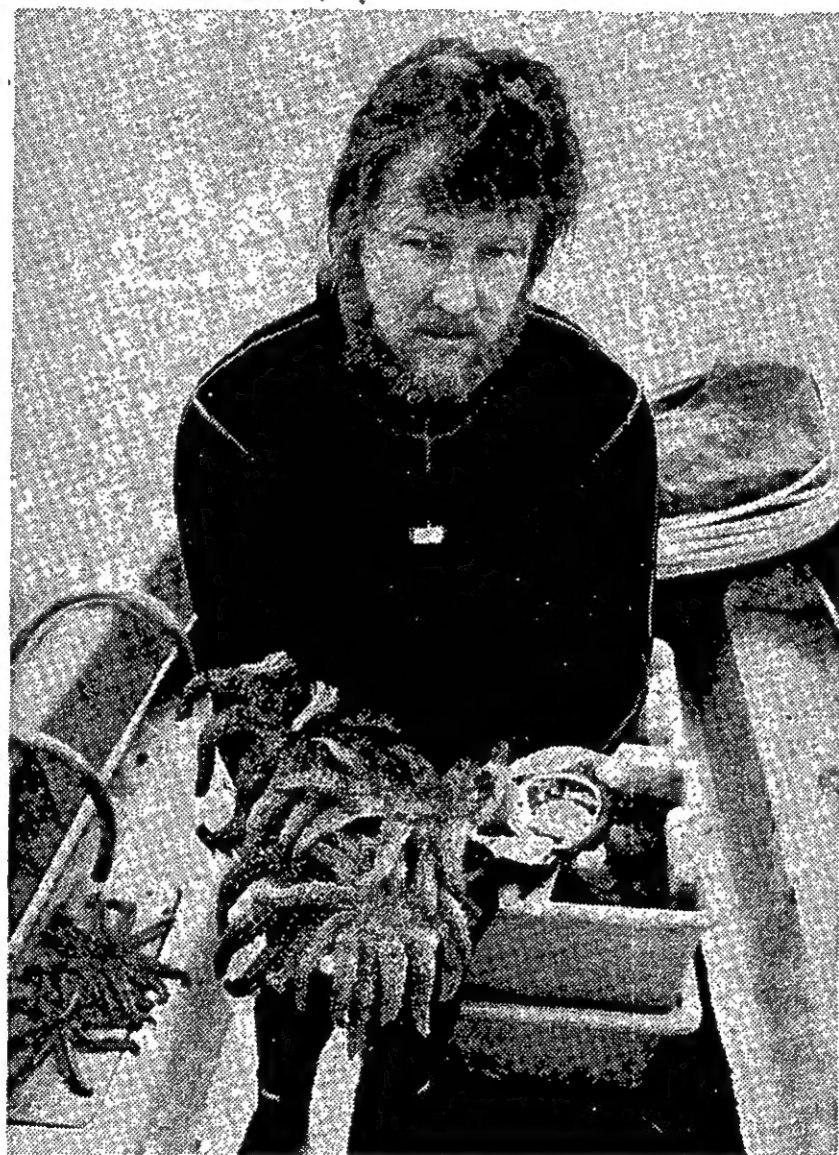

Getting back to Fred... he's made headlines several times since riding a bicycle from Germany to Australia for the '66 Olympics.

During that world-beating trip he dined with the former Indian Prime Minister Mr. Nehru.

He and his companion were guests of the Shah of Persia and President Soekarno paid their air fares from Indonesia.

After the Olympics, Fred married and stayed in Australia.

He made headlines again about three years ago when he and three friends narrowly escaped tragedy after their shark boat sank in the ocean.

Diver Fred Glasbrenner with starfish. They're destroying the bay, he claims.

Plea for bike riders to use footpaths

A resident in Maidstone Street, Altona, has asked Altona Council to legalise the riding of bicycles on footpaths.

Mr. J. E. Thompson believes that the move would help lower the road toll.

In a letter to the council, considered by councillors on Tuesday night, Mr. Thompson said:

"Would you, in your wisdom, consider making it possible for push-bikes to use the footpaths in the residential part of the city?"

"Postmen, news-boys and many others have for many years enjoyed the privilege without prosecution, so why not do something to make it possible for all bike riders to enjoy the safety of the footpaths?"

"I do not need to point out to you that this is one way to cut down the number of accidents on our roads."

"A bike rider waiting in the middle of a busy road to make a right-hand turn is a sure way of inviting trouble," he said.

The city engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, commenting on the letter, pointed out that the State Road Traffic regulations prohibited the riding of bikes on footpaths.

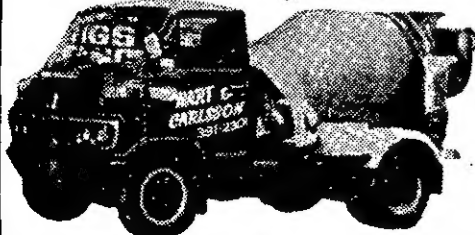

Mr. Thompson will be told of the comments.

'Pot' in yard: fined $200

Kenneth Francis Cleland told police he could see nothing wrong with possessing or smoking Indian hemp:

However, Mr. D. Scully, SM, showed that the law sees things differently, on Thursday in Williamstown Court.

He fined Cleland $200 on a possession charge, and placed him on a 12-month bond on a smoking charge.

A real dress affair

Children enjoy nothing more than "dressing-up", and that's just what pupils at Altona East Primary School did on Thursday. As a result, they raised $60 for the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association. The teachers didn't miss out either, and Mr. K. Sargeant (pictured with arm raised), helped raise the social-service money with his entrance fee.

Salvo appeal July 10

The Salvation Army's annual Red Shield Appeal will be held on Sunday, July 10.

Chairman of the Williamstown appeal is Mr. Norman Bernard, who has organised a meeting this Friday night to plan the Williamstown doorknock.

The doorknock will be held between 10 am and noon.

Area captains of the volunteer doorknock groups are:

Newport: Dave Dillion, Cole Street; Brian Patterson and Bruce Bennett, Collingwood Road; Cliff Barling, Rennie Street; John Ardossi, Hannan Street; Joe Farrugia, Douglas Parade; Ken Shortland, John Street.

Prayers for Uniting Church at St John's

By JOHN DIXON

A small but sincere congregation attended a special service at St John's Church, Williamstown, last Wednesday night to mark the inauguration of the Uniting Church in Australia.

The service was conducted by the minister of St John's, the Rev. Laurence Slee, and attended by representatives of all churches involved — and many not involved.

Williamstown parish of the Uniting Church is made up of a marriage of five churches.

These are St. John's; St. Stephen's, Williamstown; Spotswood Methodist; Williamstown Congregational and Westgate Church, West Newport.

St. Stephen's and Westgate have been joint Presbyterian - Methodist congregations for several years.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Williamstown is one of about 15 per cent of Presbyterian churches to be part of the Continuing Presbyterian Church in Australia.

The doors of St. John's were opened for private prayer at 7 pm and singing of hymns and sacred songs began at 7.15 pm.

Mr. Slee — wearing white robes that seem to emphasise neutrality — welcomed the congregation, including municipal councillors, district MPs and representatives of other churches.

He conducted a service dedicating the right wing of the church as the Pioneer Memorial Chapel and a plaque commemorating this was unveiled by three veteran members of the church.

The new chapel will be used for Sunday-night services, week-day services and special occasions.

Mr. Slee said the people the chapel honored had known three forms of Methodism that made up the former Methodist Church in Australia and who now saw the beginning of the Uniting Church.

After more hymns the congregation watched a telecast from Sydney of the official inauguration of the Uniting Church.

The church doors remained open until midnight for those wishing to pray privately.

Gas-electricity contest 'insane'

Having two fuel corporations competing and advertising against each other is total insanity, Ms Joan Coxsedge said this week.

Ms Coxsedge, the endorsed ALP candidate for the Legislative Council seat of Melbourne West, has called for an inquiry into the use of power resources.

She said an overall inquiry would look at energy conservation and use in Victoria.

"Although it would not be confined to looking into the affairs of the SEC, it would certainly investigate the performance and activities of that organisation," she said.

"From what I've heard about that body, it wouldn't stand up too well to such an investigation."

"Mistakes by so-called SEC experts have cost the Victorian taxpayers millions of dollars."

"It is inconceivable that plants like Newport are being built when Victoria has two corporations — the Gas and Fuel Corporation and the SEC — competing for the consumer's energy dollar."

"Having two outfits advertising against each other, two massive buildings housing two huge bureaucracies, is total insanity."

"If the two worked together there would be enormous savings — in energy and cost."

Ms Coxsedge said that in a time of energy crisis, governments should look to the most conserving forms of fuel use.

"It is a mystery why, when around the world conservation of energy is a major aim, the State Government turns its back."

"It is planning to use one dwindling energy resource, natural gas, to produce electricity at Newport."

"If we are to properly control and conserve fuel, then we must have an inquiry," she added.

Jumble Sale

A jumble sale will be held at the Presbyterian Hall, Paringa Road, Altona North (south side of freeway) this Saturday at 10 am. Used clothing, cakes, aprons, groceries, pot-plants, lucky dips and Devonshire teas will be on sale.

19-Y-O 'FATHER' OF 4 JAILED

A 19-year-old Newport youth who has become "father" to four young children, was sent to jail for four months by Williamstown Court on Thursday.

Garry Arthur Wilkinson, scallop fisherman, of Schutt Street, faced Mr. D. Scully, S.M., on a charge of car-stealing.

Senior Detective P. Gibbons, of Williams-town CIB, told the court he went to a house in Eliza Street, Newport, on September 28 last year.

"I saw a Holden car in the back yard.

"On January 14 I interviewed Wilkinson and asked him if he knew anything about the theft of a Holden from the ACI car park in Simcock Avenue.

"I said the engine, wheels and gear box had been taken from the vehicle. He said: 'I may as well tell you what happened.'

"He said he took the car from the car park. It was unlocked, with the ignition left in the off position, so he had just driven it away to a friend's house in Eliza Street.

"He said he didn't have room for it at his own place.

"He said he took the tyres off it because he needed them for his car, and then took the vehicle back to the car park.

"Then the engine on his car blew up, he said, so he took the Holden again, and removed the engine and the gear box to put into his own car.

"He told me he had stolen the car because he didn't have the money to buy the parts for his own car," Sen. Det. Gibbons said.

Mr. Boyle, for Wilkinson, said his client intended to reimburse the owner of the Holden.

"His background has not been a happy one, and he has been in some trouble with the police before," he said.

Wilkinson admitted prior convictions for larceny of cars.

Mr. Boyle told the court Wilkinson's parents separated when the boy was 18 months old. When he was eight, his mother began a de facto relationship.

"The man resented the children, especially my client, and he used physical violence against the boy.

"At the time of the car theft, Wilkinson was unemployed and could not buy parts for his car. The fact that he was idle also contributed to the incident.

"However, for the past four months he has been in a relationship with a woman, the mother of four children.

"He is a loving father to the children, he supports them, and proposes to marry their mother.

"He and the woman also expect a child of their own union.

'Last time'

"In the four months since this union began, my client has changed. He no longer associates with the people he was in trouble with before.

"He has vowed that this will be the last time he faces a court", Mr. Boyle said.

Wendy Hall, 21, of Salmon Street, Deer Park, told Mr. Scully she has known Wilkinson for five years.

"He has really changed since he's been with Pam and the children", she said.

Mr. Scully said everything had been tried to help Wilkinson.

"You've been tried on probation and at a youth training centre in the past. None have worked.

"Now you've taken up with a woman with four children.

"I think a term of imprisonment short enough for you to take up your responsibilities, if you want to shoulder them, is called for."

He sentenced Wilkinson to four months, and disqualified him from driving for 12 months.

Single fire authority opposed

Williamstown council's proposal for a single fire-control authority has met strong opposition from the Shepparton City Council.

One of the main points of objection by Shepparton is a fear that trade unionism may enter fire-fighting services at present operating in country areas.

Williamstown council is seeking the support of all Victorian municipalities in a bid to have the Metropolitan Fire Brigades Board and the Country Fire Authority amalgamated.

The Shepparton News reports the council of that city believes Victoria would be best served by retaining the two authorities.

The proposal is for a three-man commission to control fire fighting and Shepparton's Cr. Rich Trevasakis points out this includes a representative of the United Firefighters' Union.

He fears volunteer firemen in country areas may be forced to join the union, as happened recently in NSW, the News reports.

Workers urged to leave SEC site

Letter

SIR, — Now that Mr. Hamer is back in Melbourne, I challenge him to enforce the Vital State Projects Act.

I hereby urge and entreat all those working on the site of the proposed Newport "D" power station to leave the job, and to refuse to work on it again.

I further urge and entreat any other prospective employees to refuse to work there.

I commend the Trades Hall Council and its unionists who recognise the potential threat of the Newport project, no matter what size, to the people of Melbourne.

The trade union movement is not only concerned with the wages and conditions of unionists, but is also concerned with their health and well-being.

The general public comprises a large number of different people—one of the largest being unionists.

It is interesting, and entirely expected, that Mr. Hamer would react as he did to the latest Gallup Poll.

What is noticeable is the absence of the question: "Where should the power station be built?"

Perhaps that should have been expected too, because the Government and the SEC have consistently refused to exclude the Newport site from any discussions, often refusing to consider any other.

The unions and conservationists have been proved right by scientific evidence.

To find the Government persisting in placing a major source of photochemical smog within 3½ miles of the central business district is incredible.

In fact, one would need to go to the other side of the world and back about 36 years to find a parallel.

The world was not aware of what was happening at Belsen, Dachau and other places for many years, and then found such terrible acts unbelievable.

We find similar deliberate acts in Victoria unbelievable, especially from someone whose policies promise "quality of life".

The Government appears to be embarking on a similar campaign of producing a "master race", but this time the people to be eliminated by gassing are not the Jews, but those with poor lungs.

Those with asthma, bronchitis, emphysema, lung cancer...

By deliberately poisoning the atmosphere with pollutants from the proposed Newport power station the weak would be wiped out.

Only the strong would survive, especially those who can afford good medical care to keep them well.

Thus a "master race" is achieved in another fashion.

Wed at Holy Trinity

Leaving Holy Trinity Church Vestry, Williamstown after signing the register are Mr. and Mrs. John Heinrich, of Newport.

The bride is the former Helen Ruth Dixon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon, of Irving Street, Newport.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Heinrich, of Bade Street, Portland.

The service was conducted by the vicar of Holy Trinity, the Rev. Ernest Withington, who commented marriages of the bride's family at Holy Trinity had become something of a tradition.

Four of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon's daughters have been married by Mr. Withington at his church.

The reception after the wedding was at Williamstown Masonic Hall, Electra Street.

Altona's comedy mystery

Seamen's union helps rebuild 'Polly'

The Seamen's Union has donated $2882 toward restoration of the iron barque Polly Woodside.

A cheque for the amount was presented to the chairman of the National Trust's Polly Woodside Committee, Mr. John Yunken, by the union's assistant secretary, Mr. Roger Wilson.

It represents the first contribution under a sponsorship scheme to finance restoration of the Polly Woodside, under way at South Wharf.

The union has sponsored the fore-topmast, main-topmast and mizzen-topmast.

Restoration as this latest picture by photographer P. Hollis shows, is well under way.

The barque is now a far call from the iron hull that floated in the Maribyrnong River, at Footscray for years.

The Polly Woodside, of 648 tons gross, was built in Belfast in 1885 and is one of only two colonial barques left in Australia.

People or organisations interested in the sponsorship scheme should contact the project manager, Mr. Hayward Lloyd, at 9 South Wharf, or on 690 1170.

Grassby to open migrant talks

The Commissioner of Community Relations, Mr. Al Grassby, will open a seminar on Migrants in Industry, at Footscray Institute of Technology on Friday.

The seminar will be in the E. A. Mollard building, at the institute, in Ballarat Road at 9.45 am, and enrolments should be made between 9.15 and 9.30 am.

It is proposed to examine:

- The problems experienced by migrants in the workforce.
- Actions and policies required.

Addresses at the seminar will be recorded and distributed to those attending.

Speakers, in addition to Mr. Grassby, will be:

- Mr. A. M. Vella, assistant secretary of the Victorian Trades Hall

Council, who will speak on trade union concerns regarding migrants in industry.

• Mr. E. Remenski, co-director of Chemineer Engineering Pty. Ltd. — management concerns.

• Mr. D. Storer, of the Centre for Urban Research and Action — Policy initiatives and what management can contribute.

• Dr. J. Hearn, of the industrial relations programme at Melbourne University, who will sum up the addresses.

Inquiries regarding the seminar should be directed to Mr. Bob Ferris, on 689 3400, extension 439.

Missionary at St. Mark's

Missionary, the Rev. Harry Sutton will be a guest at a smorgasbord tea at St. Mark's Anglican Church, Spotswood on Friday.

The tea will be at 6 pm, before the mission service at 7.45 pm.

Mr. Sutton will also be guest preacher at the Family Communion service at St. Mark's next Sunday, at 9 am.

A house meeting will be held at 11 Mary Street, Spotswood at 10 am tomorrow (Thursday).

St. Marks Guild will meet at the church hall at 10.30 am next Monday.

As the Harry Sutton interchurch mission continues throughout the western suburbs, a meeting will be held at Holy Trinity Kindergarten hall, Williamstown, at 2 pm tomorrow.

The mission service tomorrow will be at St. Andrew's Uniting Church, Footscray.

A social night, with the Covenant Players as guest as well as Mr. Sutton, will be at Holy Trinity Parish Hall, at 7.30 pm on Saturday.

The mission will end with a rally at Williamstown High School Assembly Hall at 7.30 pm next Sunday.

The New Life Singers and Gospel Theatre Productions will provide a programme, and Mr. Sutton will give his final address.

$805 smash damage

An Altona North man's failure to give way to the right at a West Footscray intersection resulted in $805 damage to a utility driven by a woman, Footscray Court was told last Thursday.

The smash was at the corner of Alma and Palmerston streets, about 2 pm last November 25.

Angelo Borzillo, of Cooper Street, North Altona, did not appear in court.

He was fined $50, or five days' imprisonment, by Mr. William Guy, SM.

Mrs. Dorren Mackay, of Pilgrim Street, Footscray, gave evidence she was driving a utility in Alma Street and slowed down at the intersection with Palmerston Street.

Borzillo's car came from Palmerston Street and collided with the utility, injuring her daughter and causing $805 damage, she said.

Constable William Heatherington, of Footscray police said Borzillo told him he did not see the utility until it was too late to avoid a smash.

He added the view to the right, from Palmerston Street, was obscured by a shop on the corner.

FAMILY DEVOTIONS

The great preacher Spurgeon said, "The family altar is one of the oldest and best institutions in the world, and blessed is that family where such is established. It is better to live in a hut or a cabin with an altar than a palace without one. It is a sad thing to be without God in the home. It is like being in a tempest-tossed ship without a compass or rudder. The altar is as much needed in the home as a fire on a cold day or a lamp on a dark night. The family altar is the connecting link between our earthly and our heavenly home. As the builders of the Tower of Babel got into confusion and failure, so will they who try to make a home without religion".

"SEARCH THE Scriptures: for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me".

VIKINGS CAN'T BLAME THE WEATHER

By Alan Burkitt

The Vikings cannot blame the wet weather for losing senior games on Saturday.

The games against North Footscray were played on the old oval next to the civic centre. Drop kicking and high marking were features of the day on the dry ground.

Most of the junior section was not so lucky. Teams played on opposition grounds which were in shocking condition.

Highlights of the round was the under 17s first win for the season at the expense of Sunshine Heights.

The boys have stuck behind their coach, Steven Chaffield and deserved to win.

After some big wins, the under 15s found the going much harder at Fearon Reserve. They held on and beat Williamstown United by two goals.

The under 13s found their mud legs and crushed Sunshine who failed to score.

Joe O'Connor's under 12s lowered their colors to Maidstone but are still finals prospects.

David Kip starred for the under 11s kicking five goals against Williamstown.

The littlest Vikings were also drawn on the home oval and showed their appreciation of the conditions by beating Braybrook CYC.

All junior teams except the under 17s are in or near the four.

In the senior game, the Vikings once again failed to maintain 100 minutes of good football.

The game was probably lost in the first term when Altona kicked with the wind and scored only three goals seven behinds.

They were two goals down at half-time and after a shower-room pay out from coach, Mal Tisdale, a win looked likely.

But North had other ideas. They kicked five goals against the wind and although the Vikings held them well in the final term, the damage was done.

Geoff Behend was once again outstanding for the home side, but he needs help.

Some Altona players seem to have lost their will to win.

Scores: Altona City 8.13 (61) lost to North Footscray 14.15 (99).

Goals: Rosenboom, G. Morgan 2, G. Knight, A. Walgers, F. Grego, M. Calaz. Best: G. Behend, J. Blokkeerus, R. Walsh, G. Morgan, H. Pride, J. Rosenboom.

The A reserve lost their match and perhaps their finals chance when they forgot about the first rule of football: "The man in white is always right".

The Vikings had the game virtually won at the final change but North Footscray had the wind in the final term and this together with some foolish free kicks and 15-metre penalties, enabled them to steal the game.

JUNIOR SCORES

Under 17s: Altona City 7.8 (50) d. Sunshine Heights 3.5 (23).

Best: P. Stephens, G. Scholese, K. Vogan, A. Hudson, S. Kimpton, D. Richards. Goals: W. Smith, M. Lokaj 2, Kimpton, D. Wise Stephens.

Under 15s: Altona City 6.8 (44) d. Williamstown United 5.2 (32).

Best: J. Robertson, M. Neal, G. Burnett, R. White, W. Smith, P. Van Breda. Goals: A. Rocco 4, W. Smith 2.

Under 13s: Altona City 12.10 (82) d. Sunshine nil.

Altona under 16 lacrosse win

Altona's under 16 lacrosse team beat the previously undefeated Caulfield side in a hard-fought game at the weekend, with the final scores at 11 goals to 10.

Altona started well in the first quarter, with Plant, Johnston and Gerrard all scoring.

Caulfield applied pressure in the second term but found Altona's defence — Nichols, Hughes and Winn — too strong.

In the third quarter goal-keeping by B. Allen kept Altona in the game, with R. Dole scoring the only goal.

Midfields Leroy, McGuchian, Baker and Caldwell gave Altona the drive needed in the fourth term to record victory.

Best: Plant, Allen, Gerrard.

Goals: Plant 5, Johnson 3, Gerrard 2, Dole 1.

The under-14 team defeated Coburg by seven goals.

Tony Puopolo starred on the forward line and was well supported by Chris Frydas.

Peter Chrichiello scored two good goals from the midfield and B. Nichols scored two goals by dash-ing own from the back line.

Best: M. Capuano, T. Puopolo, G. Martin.

Goals: T. Puopolo 4, C. Fryas 3, P. Chrichiello, B. Nichols 2.

In the under-12 game, Altona gave top side CGI a lesson in lacrosse, with a 10 goals to three win.

Altona's defence, led by goalkeeper Frank Spagnolo with strong backing from Puopolo, Carlson, Creighton and Theodorou proved to strong for CGI.

R. Ercamps, P. Cartolano and R. Johnson all played well and the midfield line, comprising Pacifici, de Kusel, Hardman and Leroy gave great drive all day.

Best: L. Villani, C. Pate, D. Krol, P. Davies, M. Joyce. Goals: Davies 4, Paten 3, C. Burkitt, G. Howarth 2, Krol.

Under 12s: Altona City 3.3 (21) lost to Maidstone 9.3 (57).

Best: P. Stewart, P. Cutler, D. Cody, P. Burns. Goals: D. Cooper, D. Wilson, G. Whinneray.

Under 11s: Altona City 8.12 (60) d. Williamstown Juniors 1.0 (6).

Best: R. Wilson, C. Spencer, D. Kip. Goals: Kip 5, S. Gillard 2, T. Whybrow, S. Evans, P. Reid.

Under 10s Altona City 2.7 (19) d. Braybrook CYC 2.0 (12).

Best: A. Taylor, P. Stone, W. Girvan, T. McGowan, D. Ryan. Goals: W. Girvan, B. Devereaux.

West win one, lose one

West Newport Football Club lost one game at the weekend and won the other.

The senior first division side went down to Williamstown CYMS, with the final scores at 11.15 (81) to 5.9 (39).

With three games having been played on Loft Reserve beforehand, players had to put up with some of the worst conditions ever.

Most of the ground was ankle deep in mud.

The CYMS side handled the ball surely and played a better brand of football than West, to lead by 17 points at the first change and 28 points at half time.

West supporters had a glimmer of hope in the first 10 minutes of the third term, when the team put on three majors, but CYMS steadied and fought back.

West Best: Ray Broughton, Carrington, W. Chitty, Menzies.

West Goals: Orr 3, Cavanagh, Menzies.

In the senior division match, West Newport had a narrow four-point win over Williamstown CYMS.

Final scores were 6.9 (45) to 6.5 (41), in West's favor.

Although the mud prevented a skilful game, the enthusiasm shown by both sides provided an exciting and entertaining match.

West gained the advan-

Central Altona football

Reserves: Central lost to Hoppers Crossing.

Under-15: Central 2.3 d. Hoppers Crossing 1.8. Best: Colla, A. Lane, Servidio, Jackno, Cini. Goals: Christou, Auciello.

Under-13: Central 0.5 lost to Hoppers Crossing 6.2. Best: Gilchrist, Olds, McKenzie.

Under-11: Central 3.2 drew with Westport 3.2. Best: Pastore, Howell, Bennett, Czerniawski. Goals: Bennett, Howell, Miller.

Under-10: Central 12.9 d. Albion North nil. Best: Crane, Taylor, McAsey, Bunting. Goals: Bencie 5, G. Evans 2, Crane 2, Politikes, McAsey, Karanites.

Seagulls lose but move up

Although Williamstown lost Sunday's game by eight points, they moved from the bottom of the ladder to ninth place.

Prahran took command in the first term but the Seagulls rallied to a final score of 17.8 (110) to Prahran's 18.11 (119).

Greg Tweedly helped bridge the gap by kicking three goals in the second term.

With two more from John Nash and one each from Brian Lowe and Ray Powley, the Gulls had pared Prahran's margin by half-time.

After the break, Tweedly kicked the 11th goal for Williamstown then Mick Mahoney marked well and booted the Gulls' third major for the quarter.

Frank Porcevina was starring in defence and Dominic de van der Scheweren was playing well.

But at three-quarter time, Williamstown was down 34 points.

The Seagulls had the wind with them and Peter Gardner took advantage of it. So did Greg Tweedly with a goal from the flank. He booted two more goals before the final siren went.

Goals: Tweedly 6, Nash 4, Lowe 3, Mahoney 2, Powley, Gardner.

Best: With his accurate kicking and dash, Tweedly was best on the field. Fanning held the ruck and Nash played well as wards, Mike Brown, rover. Porcevina saved many times and is a good mud-runner. De van der Scheweren played a strong game. So did Kennedy, Hickman on the back-line and Powley.

The Gulls will not be playing this weekend. The following Sunday, they meet Port Melbourne at home.

Williamstown Central Motors Award: Greg Tweedly 3, John Fanning 2, Alan Kennedy 1. Progressive voting: Mal Allen, John Fanning 9; Brian Lowe, Peter Gardner 8; Mick Mahoney 7; Greg Tweedly 6; Robert Percy, Mark Cross, Frank Porcevina 4; Dominic de van der Scheweren, Bruce Alexander 2; Daryl Dixon, Peter Kerr, Alan Kennedy 1.

SECONDS

Playing at home, Williamstown gave its best performance for the season. The side lost by six points to Prahran.

Score: Williamstown 5.2 (32) lost to Prahran 4.14 (38). Goals: Brian Edwards 3, Andy Donnelly, Mick Foote. Best: Brian Ed-

Goals: Fairley, Robson, Goding, Demetriou, Arceri. Best: Demetriou, Fairley, Arceri, Arandez, Goding, Butterfield.

Under 12: Williamstown 8.13 (61) d. Albion North 0.1 (1). Goals: Temby, Gabriel, Gould 2, Brierty, Hougee.

Under 11: Williamstown 1.0 (6) lost to Altona City 8.12 (60). Goal: Buttegeig. Best: G. Bates, M. Bates, Callender, Calthrope, Simpson, Bratby, Kelvin Gould played his 50th game.

Under 10: Williamstown 13.14 (92) d. Hoppers Crossing nil. Goals: Doolley 6, Cavanagh, Powell 2, Ward, Pecora, Walsh.

Under 15: Williamstown 2.5 (17) lost to Westport 3.8 (26). Goals: M. McDonald 2. Best: Hughes, James, Barnett, Brierty, Bratby, M. McDonald.

Under 13: Williamstown 5.14 (44) d. Westport nil.

Williamstown lacrosse

Williamstown's A grade lacrosse team has gone into the second round of the season undefeated.

The winning run continued at the weekend, when Williamstown downed Altona 27 goals to one.

Conditions were sloppy, but Williamstown had too much strength and experience for Altona.

Votes: Butkiewicz, Gar-nsworthy, Tatlow.

Goals: S. Smith 8, Butkiewicz 4, Cordell, Twomey, Jennings, Wil-son 2, Jeremiah 1.

The B grade missed out on a game when they had a walkover, but the premiership points are still useful.

Flazza's under 19 team produced a winning break in the second quarter, out-scoring Surrey Park 5-1.

The rest of the game was tight, with Williams-town running out winners 11-7.

Votes: Morley, Taylor, M. Jennings.

Goals: Flaherty, M. Jennings, Taylor, Kennedy, Maddona 2, Lower.

The under 16 team had a convincing win over old rivals, Malvern.

Denis Newman continued his good form, with John Vanderweert playing a good dodging game.

Votes: Newman, Ma-dona, Meyer.

Goals: Vanderweert, Newman 9, Maddona 2, Meyer, P. Jennings.

The under 14 team went down 10-7, in a mud patch at Surrey Park.

Conditions were so bad that at one stage Duncan McLeod, in goals, tried to stop flying mud, mistaking it for the ball.

Votes: Bell, Lewis, Roban.

Goals: Bell 6, Butler.

The under 12 team had a walkover.

STUDY THE PROS

It pays to watch good golfers when you're trying to improve your swing. But don't let the fact that techniques can vary from golfer to golfer confuse you.

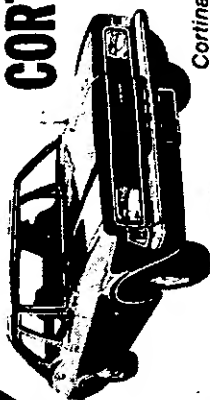

Concentrate on the total swing rather than on a specific part. Notice the unhurried back and forth rhythm, and try to develop one that is similar in your own swing. If you study the good players and ignore the duffers you can pick up helpful pointers on grip, stance and length of swing.

Your Guide to Buying a Good Used Car

BODY WORK & TYRES
Inspect bodywork for obvious defects in panels, look for rust. Ensure doors close smoothly and lock securely. Headlights, parking and stop lights work effectively. Turn indicators in working order? Look for unevenly worn tyres

UNDER THE BONNET
Test the engine for starting, smooth idling, undue exhaust, is the engine clean, no oil leaks. Listen for excessive noise. Test drive to check acceleration and-power clutch, gears,
steering and braking,
electrical and cooling systems

INTERIOR
Check floor, ceiling for cleanliness and condition, seating for upholstery
-springs. Check steering,
accelerator and brake
pedals, sun visors, dash panel, speedo, fuel gauge.
